SUBJECT: COMMUNIST INTELLIGENCE ACTIVITIES.

1. According to source the so-called "Cadre" department of the Communist Party had been established some time ago. According to source's present knowledge, this clandestine organization occupies two premises at present, both of which are overtly SED offices.

2. Following are the addresses of the two bureaus:

a. Lothringer Strasse 1, Berlin-Mitte (Russian Sector), in the building occupied by the Central Bureau der SED, the so-called "Inter-zonal Bureau," which is under a certain STABLMAN.

b. Wallstrasse 67-69, Berlin C 2 (Russian Sector), in the building occupied by the Propaganda Abteilung of the SED, in the so-called "Agi-Prop Bureau". The latter is headed by a certain OESNER.

3. Source stated that the courier among the two organizations named above and similar agencies in the Western Zones of Germany, is a man named FUHRMANN, who makes at least one round-trip monthly between Berlin and either Munich or Duesseldorf.
